COMMENTS:

In fact, when he began this "run" he carefully reviewed the reporting periods. He impression was that since his committee had not been formed until August 2020, and had neither accepted contributions or made expenditures within the 90-P reporting period (April 28th- July 26th), his first report would be due on October 5, 2020. Given the unusual circumstances this particular chain of events presents, he is requesting this matter referred to the committee and that any late fees be waived.

RE: Notice of Delinquency

Dear Board:

On July 24th 2020, I qualified to run for the Criminal District Court, Section "K." judgeship. I made the decision to run on the last day of qualifying.

On August 1st 2020, I filed my Statement of Organization with your office and supplied a check from my office with that form. On August 3rd 2020, my campaign chairman, David Varisco, opened a dedicated checking account at Gulf Coast Bank.

On August 4th I received a letter from Ms. Jenny Arnaud, asking me to provide a check drawn on the campaign committee account. We did so and on August 10th 2020, a receipt was provided to me evincing that I had timely responded to that request. The Committee's Certificate of Registration was proved to my committee at that time.(Copy Enclosed.)

On August 29th 2020, I stopped downstairs to say hello at Steve's Bail Bonds, 2741 Tulane Avenue, N.O., La., 70119, and was told the post person "had left mail" for "me" with them. When I retrieved and opened the mail, I found a Notice of Delinquency dated August 7th 2020, my heart dropped to the floor. As I struggled to make sense of what was happening, I saw that the rest of the mail delivered that day was all posted within the week of August 24th 2020.

The owner of Steve's told me "no one" had signed the return postcard and that the post person has just thrown the mail on the counter and walked out. (I am enclosing a photo I took with a cell phone to show the date I received the Notice and the dates of two bank statements that arrived with the Notice of Delinquency.)

When I decided to run for office again, I was very mindful of fulfilling all of the requisites of the Board of Ethics, due to my prior experience with "help" who really did not comprehend the ramifications of not responding to you in a timely manner and the importance of filing reports timely.

In fact, when I began this "run" I carefully reviewed the reporting periods. My impression was that since my committee had not been formed until August 1st 2020, and had neither accepted contributions or made expenditures within the 90-P reporting period(April 28th-July 26th 2020), my first report would be due on October 5th.

I prominently marked and highlighted that date on my wall calendar.

On Saturday, August 29th, I called attorney Rufus Craig and explained to him what had occurred and supplied Mr. Craig the same documentation, I am enclosing with this letter.

Mr. Craig communicated with you office today and I am following the instructions that were communicated to me.

Today, I was assisted by Mr. Slava in your I.T. department. He was extremely helpful and very patient. He walked me through the entire LEADERS process, which was ultimately very easy as my 90-day report-consists of all zeros.(Confirmation Enclosed.)

I have calendared the next report and assure you that this type of error will never be made by me again.

Given the unusual circumstances this particular chain of events presents, I am requesting this matter referred to the committee and that any late fees be waived.

Best wishes,

C. Gary Wainwright
